Title: COMPUTER MOUSE WITH SPECIALIZED BUTTON(S)

Dear Sir,

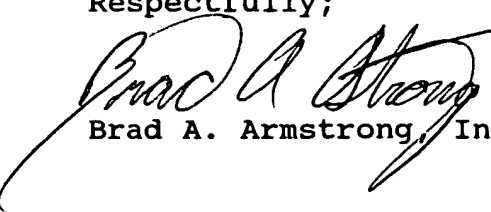

REMARKS:

My pending U.S. non-provisional application No. 09/167,314 filed 10/06/98 originally titled COMPUTER MOUSE WITH ANALOG BUTTONS has been allowed and will issue as a patent. I believe the present invention is patentable over the inventions of my above mentioned co-pending application, but wish the issues pertaining to Double Patenting be carefully considered by the PTO.

There are prior art listings and copies of the disclosures in the file of application No. 09/167,314. I have included a copy of the U.S. Patents: 5,517,211; 4,546,347 and 5,349,371 mentioned in the Prior Art section of the instant application as being cumulative and of the old and well known optical type surface-tracking mouse.

The present invention is believed patentable and allowance of the claims is respectfully requested.

Respectfully;

Brad A. Armstrong, Inventor
